Sir,

I have the honor to state that the right of collecting tolls at the marginally noted three toll-gates in the Hunsur Taluk during the year 1906-1907 was sold by public auction by Mr Kantiravathar, Amildar of the Taluk, on the 20th April 1906; but the results were far from satisfaction for want of bidders. It was therefore notified that a re-sale would be held on the 3rd June 1906 by Mr C. Devaraj Urs, Assistant Commissioner in charge of the Taluk. The highest bid secured in this second sale is for Rs. 495 against Rs. 500 per month for the current year (excluding the local cess). The amount realized from the toll-gates at Panchavalli and Ankanahalli is attributed to the decrease of traffic which mainly consisted of Coffee, and to the carts evading payment of tolls by passing through the country-tracks. I have confirmed the sale

I have the honor to be,
